DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species A: use of Equation 1 from the specification in the processor

Species B: use of Equation 2 from the specification in the processor

Species C: use of Equation 3 from the specification in the processor

Species D: use of Equation 4 from the specification in the processor

Species E: use of Equation 5 from the specification in the processor

Species F: use of Equation 6 from the specification in the processor

Species G: use of Equation 7 from the specification in the processor

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A: claims 4, 15, 18, and 19

Species B: claim 5

Species C: claim 6

Species D: claims 7-10

Species E: claims 11-14

Species F: claims 16

Species G: claims 17

The following claim(s) are generic: 1-3 and 20-22.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons. The single general inventive concept cannot merely be the use of WHR for determining visceral fat since the ratio of waist size to hip size is known in the art. (see column 4, lines 3-12 of U.S. Patent 5,579,782 to Masuo – cited by Applicant). Since the general inventive concept is not the use of WHR generally, the inventive concept must be the particular formulas that use WHR for determining the visceral fat. Various claims use different formulas so each claim that uses a particular formula is considered to be using a different inventive concept.

4. A telephone call was made on 3/15/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
